Brian Kriegler is a Managing Director at Econ One Research in Los Angeles, California. He earned his M.S. and Ph.D. in statistics from UCLA, and he earned his B.A. in mathematics/economics from Claremont McKenna College. He has published several articles in peer-reviewed journals on the use of sampling and statistical modeling. To date, he has also contributed eight articles to Law360.

Dr. Kriegler has testified as an expert statistician in both State and Federal courts several dozen times, of which approximately half were in connection with wage and hour class actions. He has also testified in the areas of civil rights, consumer claims, and Medicare fraud. Dr. Kriegler has been an invited speaker in multiple panels, including at the ABA's Annual Labor and Employment Conference in 2017, the FLSL Midwinter Meeting in 2020, and the Annual Conference for the California Employment Lawyers Association in 2018.

Noteworthy cases in which Courts have relied directly on Dr. Kriegler's analysis/opinions include:

- Alberts v. Aurora - Employees alleged missed meal/rest periods and off-the-clock work
- Senne v. Major League Baseball - Minor league baseball players alleged minimum wage and overtime violations
- Benton v. TNS - Cell phone tower installers alleged underpaid overtime and missed meal/rest periods
- Hamilton v. Walmart - Fulfillment center employees alleged underpaid overtime and non-compliant meal periods
- Espinoza v. East West Bank - Plaintiff and the putative class alleged they were misclassified as salary exempt employees

REPRESENTATIVE ENGAGEMENTS

Employment

Minimum wage and underpaid overtime

Senne v. Major League Baseball - To date, retained by the plaintiffs to propose a method for estimating hours worked and calculating damages. Analyzed employee transactional/payroll data, Google Maps, and the Minor League Baseball website to “re-create” minor league baseball players’ workdays. Case is pending.

Missed breaks and off-the-clock work

Alberts v. Aurora - To date, retained by the plaintiffs to (i) analyze historical timekeeping and payroll records, along with survey data, and (ii) propose damages model at trial. Case is pending.

Missed breaks and underpaid overtime

Benton v. Telecom Network Specialists - To date, retained by the plaintiffs to (i) analyze historical timekeeping and payroll records from numerous staffing companies, and (ii) calculate classwide damages. Trial court has ruled in favor of the plaintiffs.

DLSE v. Adat Shalom Board and Care - Retained by the defendant to evaluate the sampling design carried out by the DLSE. Case is pending.

Non-compliant breaks and underpaid overtime

Hamilton v. Walmart - Retained by the plaintiffs to analyze timekeeping data, payroll data, and security camera footage. Calculated damages and penalties stemming from various wage and hour violations.

Missed breaks, underpaid overtime, and off-the-clock work

Landon Fulmer v. Golden State Drilling - Retained by the plaintiffs to calculate classwide damages using class member deposition testimony, timekeeping, and payroll records.

DR. BRIAN KRIEGLER
Managing Director

Misclassification

Boyd v. Landsafe - Retained by the plaintiffs to calculate classwide damages using survey data, activity logs, and payroll records. Also worked with survey experts to design and implement a questionnaire to estimate hours worked.

Espinoza v. East West Bank - Retained by the defense to evaluate declarations and deposition testimony of potential class members prior to class certification. Opined on Plaintiffs' experts' approach regarding the proposed use of surveying and sampling.

Seating

Lampkins v. Chase Bank - Retained by the plaintiff to analyze the length of time between transaction, the frequency of various types of transactions, and timekeeping data.

Discrimination

Capen v. Temecula Preparatory School - Retained by the plaintiff to conduct a statistical analysis of hiring and terminating practices at a charter school.

Horvath v. Western Refining - In a single plaintiff age discrimination case, conducted a statistical analysis of hiring and terminating practices at a logistics company.

Compliance audit

In the context of a pending class action, retained by a large restaurant chain to estimate how long various job activities took to complete. Worked with restaurant industry expert to develop a survey of kitchen managers.

Civil Rights

Over-detention and strip searches

Barnes v. District of Columbia - Retained by the plaintiffs to analyze inmate databases and to identify potentially impacted individuals. Also constructed a sampling design for selecting inmate files, and subsequently extrapolated the number of over-detentions and number of post-release strip-searched inmates based on a criminal justice expert's analysis of the sample.

Strip searches

Craft v. San Bernardino - Retained by the plaintiffs to analyze large databases to identify inmates who were subjected to strip searches (i) prior to their arraignment, (ii) after being ordered released, and/or (iii) in large groups. Collaborated with system administrators and officers from the law enforcement agency to construct criteria for identifying class members.

DR. BRIAN KRIEGLER
Managing Director

False Claims Act

Non-Litigation Medicare Audits

Regularly retained by a healthcare consulting firm to (i) select a random sample of Medicare claims, and (ii) perform extrapolations based on said sample once a medical expert has reviewed said sample. Sampling and extrapolation results typically are submitted to the applicable Medicare Administrative Contractor (MAC)

Medicare reimbursements, disgorgement

Retained by the relator, who alleged that a pharmaceutical company offered illegal kickbacks to doctors for prescribing specific drugs and inflated revenue for the pharmaceutical company. Constructed damages model that was used for settlement proceedings.

Medicare reimbursements

U.S. ex rel. Carlo Santa Ana v. Winter Park Urology - Retained by the relator, who alleged that the medical provider submitted improperly up-coded Medicare claims. Extrapolated damages based on a random sample of patients' data.

Antitrust

Large transactional data analysis

Marchbanks v. Comdata - In a consulting role to the testifying expert to manage approximately one billion proprietary debit card transactions. Collaborated with class administrator to locate class members and calculate damages for settlement purposes.

Breach of Contract

Unjust enrichment

McAllister v. St. Louis Rams - Retained by the plaintiff, who alleged that season ticket holders were entitled to a refund for their personalized seating license. Developed a damages model and sampling methodology.
